

Life in Sias

China, the world's most populous state, was crowded by billions of people. The different brought the various cultures to this country which makes it full of colours and vividness. However, it also was hidden peace and precious natural tourist attractions inside. We, as the Thai to China exchange students, really appreciated the opportunity that Naresuan University and Faculty of Humanities provided us this abroad experience in Sias International University, Xinzheng, China. Sias International University (郑州大学西亚斯国际学院) was established in 1998 by a naturalized

This activity aimed to persuade the foreign students studying Chinese by arranging games. We also have a chance to meet up with the native speakers and make friends.

Chinese-American, Shawn Chen. The surrounding was really multi-cultures such as Spanish Cafeteria, Russian Dormitory, Chinese and American Administration Building, and Opera House Music Building. Moreover, there are also different culture students as Indian, Russian, Malaysian, Indonesian, Korean, and Laos. In each semester, we joined many activities that Sias provides us.

Chinese Corner: the first activities that we join here.

Sport Day Ceremony: Thai national costume was represented our country. So, we have a good chance to realize different styles of international costumes.

International Bike Racing 2015 at Luoning: promoting China Tourism and persuading foreigner to come here.

Dragon Boat Festival: celebrating each faculty by creating their own boats.

Chinese Speech Contest for foreign students: a great opportunity to tell your experience about Sias from your own opinion.

Short Trip to other cities such as Beijing, Shanghai, Luoyang, and Xian: providing us the new experience outside and realizing how to arrange travelling plan.

In conclusion, this four-month activity not only gave us Chinese lesson but also provide us life experience with foreign students. Moreover, we have a chance to welcome Chinese friend to Thailand. In addition, we understand more about different cultures and life style. According to Laurel Clark, "I've always enjoyed traveling and having experience with different cultures and different people. But it's also a wonderful thing to be able to benefit and enable research, not only in our country but around the world."
